Winner of the 2012 Montreal Fringe festival's Next Stage Award, Vicious Circles is a meta-euphoric and surrealist-psychedelic tale about icon of punk and bassist of the Sex Pistols, Sid Vicious, and the tug of war for his life between his band mate, Johnny Rotten, his manager, Malcolm McLaren, and his girlfriend, 'Nauseating' Nancy Spungen, at New York's Chelsea Hotel.

"Sid, Nancy and Johnny are interpreted to a T" – The Charlebois Post

A sweaty, punk-rock co-production between Montreal's Award-winning Stadium Tour and Western Australia's Weeping Spoon Productions, the Company behind such award-winning productions as Greed, Zack Adams: Love Songs For Future Girl, The Adventures Of Alvin Sputnik and the recent critically acclaimed sell-out show TRAMPOLINE.

-Winner of the 2012 Montreal Fringe Festival's Next Stage Award for "Best Local English Production".

-Nominated for the 2012 Chapters Award for "Best English Text".

-Nominated for the 2012 Théâtre Denise-Pelletier's Fred Barry Award for "Best Production Design".

"Patrick Rogers is just amazing as Vicious. Sure he's ranting and raving but he also gives you glimpses of the lost boy hiding behind the swastika t-shirt. When he grabs the mic stand and does My Way, time stands still. Shane Adamczak is also something else as Rotten. He has the singer's posture and stage moves down pat – when he suddenly starts lip-syncing to No Feelings, it's sheer genius."

- The Montreal Gazette

“(Adamczak) is completely unrecognizable, skilfully recreating Johnny Rotten’s disturbing stare, theatrical turns of phrase and sudden, unpredictable mood swings.”

– Bloody Underrated
